FIRE! FIRE! FIRE!

ON THE LINE OF MARCH.

As the Leading Millinery House of St. Louis

We desire nothing so much as a minute inspection of our stock, not only by the immense city trade, which we always have, but are anxious to have ladies from the country to call and see our

GRAND EXPOSITION
of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets for Ladies, Misses and Children, which is pronounced by everybody to be the largest in the city, and most tasteful and original in style. Our assortment embraces everything from the cheapest Black Canton to the finest Milan in Fall styles. Remember we buy our Hats from Eastern manufacturers only, so you can always rely on buying goods from us at bottom prices.

French Pattern Hats and Bonnets.

We are exhibiting a magnificent line of French Pattern Hats and Bonnets, which do not compete in price and quality.

POINTS TO LOOK AT.

Notice the extent and variety of the collection. Notice the beauty and excellence of the fabrics used. Notice the elegance of our workmanship, and notice especially our extremely low prices.

FANCY FEATHERS, PLUMES AND TIPS.

In this department (our pride) we have provided in no end of kinds to meet the demand. We have everything that is new and stylish.

SILKS, VELVETS AND SATINS.

These goods are coming in daily. Fresh stock. We open the Fall trade with lower average prices than have ruled in any previous season. Much of this is due to the general depression in the Boston and New York markets.

SPECIAL.

With sights both curious and amazing;

With novelties from all over the sky;

And gets his share of fame and praise.

He means, indeed, to beguile the stranger;

He means to make the world beguiled;

But darkness never yet has lit

On Mac, nor does he mean to do danger.

Come in, will, walk till you drop.

You'll never find a greater circus.

Then where the great crowd steps;

Then where the circus steps to jive;

He calmly views the stirring mass.

We, friends, and neighbors beguile them;

Placed from the ceiling to the floors;

Look over town, then see it all.

And you are certain sure to buy it.

Enticed away by flags or bunting;

If you are, why don't you buy it?

ONLY McNICHOLS, why there's blood on the Moon, and there's something come away with YOU—that's all.

McNichols has a little Exposition all by himself which takes the cake at 1022-1024 MARKET STREET.

P.S. His prints are away under everybody. Look to it!

PRETTY AND PLUCKY.

Cool Reception of a New Jersey Burglar by the Daughter of the House.

She Stands Her Ground After Being Shot in the Arm.—The Fashionable Hour for Committing a Burglary—Some Aspersions on the New York Police.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

New York, September 9.—About five minutes' walk from the Bergen Point railroad depot is the residence of Mrs. F. Furniss, widow.

The house is on the north side of the street, with a yard separated from a patch of woods by a lane.

A representative of the Post-Dispatch and Master-Warden McBride visited him to day. A medium-sized Chinaman, dressed in the prison garb of the institution, followed his way to the door and, half blinded by the light, tried to keep his eyes open long enough to see his visitors. The Chinaman's arm trembled and his knees knocked together as if he had been on a protracted spree and was suffering from delirious tremors. He was in the same condition when he came to the door.

The two visitors were received by the daughter of the house, Miss Grace Furniss, the daughter of the house.

She stood her ground after being shot in the arm.

She was shot in the parlor floor.

ABOUT THOSE BONDS.

Ex-Governor Carney Gives an Authentic History of the Fort Scott Matter.

The Reminiscences of a Man Who Was There—"I Don't Know That Mr. Blaine Got That $77,000, But"—An Interesting Interview.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., September 9.—Ex-Governor Thos. Carney, of Kansas, says: "Blaine has a record to make and another to unmake. I believe that, if he is elected President, he will accomplish both things, and, for that reason, I intend to support him. There are some things," he said at last, "that a man knows and yet doesn't know. He can't swear to them in a court of justice, yet he may know them as truly as he lives. He may not have seen certain things done, but he knows the things done from his knowledge of other facts bearing upon them. It is an old story and a long one. Many of us, who knew the truth of it, had to do with the matter from beginning to end, are dead and their names are not known. I don't know that Mr. Blaine got that $77,000, but—I—an interesting interview.

England.

LONDON, September 9.—The Duke of Portland's bay colt, Langwell, won the Champagne stakes at Doncaster.

Crowds of people thronged the streets as the Czar passed from the railway station to Lazienki Palace.

Russia.

LONDON, September 9.—Advices from Warsaw state that arrests of nihilists are of daily occurrence. Six persons were arrested Sunday morning. The police issued an order prohibiting unauthorized persons from approaching within 300 paces of the Czar. Soldiers and gendarmes were ordered to fire at anyone who crossed the Czar's route.

Germany.

BERLIN, September 9.—John A. Kasson, the new American minister, will present his credentials to Emperor William, to-morrow. Afterward will be received by the Empress of Austria.

THE SUMMARY.

Latest Returns From the Maine Elections—Political Notes.

AUGUSTA, Me., September 9.—The following telegram was sent by Postmaster Manley, to Secretary Fessenden of the Republican National Committee:

"REPEAL OF THE 15,000 DOLLAR TAX."

Mr. Blaine's own city has given a majority of 224 greater than was ever before known, and his county gives 230 majority."

A Summary.

ATLANTA, Ga., September 9.—The following dispatch was sent to Gen. Logan to-day: "The result of the election may be thus summarized: The Republicans have carried every county in the State, with the possible exception of Knox, which is very close. They have elected twenty-nine Senators on the first ballot, and four more to go; a total of 33. The Representatives and Legislators. They have elected four Representatives in Congress by large majorities, and have given to Mr. George W. McDonald, Senator Rice, and others whom I cannot now recall—of course, with Powell Clayton in the Governor's chair, there was no doubt about our being elected. We are now in our eleventh year, and, in fact, soon after we organized, the Legislature granted us $10,000 per mile, in what were known as STATE AID BONDS.

"Put into the enterprise $2,000 in cash; the others associated with us took up different amounts. I remember how many, but at all events, we got ready and began to build the road. That was the first part of our connection with the enterprise. When we got fully organized, and found that we had got it ourselves, I went to Arkansas and looked over that part of the South; made a good many inquiries and at the same time, I found that there was no feasible thing to take up the old Little Rock and Ft. Smith Railway scheme and build the road, as it opened up the country to the westward, which had no communication with the outside world, except by the mule and risky navigation of the Arkansas River. The most important thing that we did, however, it seemed, and finally a lot of us got together and formed a combination, included Senator Bowles, now of Colorado, and Frank T. Bowen, Mr. Alex. McDonald, Senator Rice, and others whom I cannot now recall—of course, with Powell Clayton in the Governor's chair, there was no doubt about our being elected. We are now in our eleventh year, and, in fact, soon after we organized, the Legislature granted us $10,000 per mile, in what were known as the STATE AID BONDS.

"We had received and divided up the securities voted us by the State. We had divided up our stock and bonds, and every man had a chest full of securities, but the road was not built, and we had no money left. Powell Clayton has never paid us back, and, in fact, we soon after we organized, had the money left.

BAD POLITICAL MANAGER,

and the State was about to be considered by the Democrats, and we had no friends, and here we had those State bonds in our possession and no road to show for them, or, at least, no completed road. Our friends were few, however, with the last one. Our time for completing the road was up, and the United States Land grant bill was introduced, and, if this United States Land grant bill had been passed, we would have had a chest full of securities, but the road was not built, and we had no money left.

From Portland.

PORTLAND, Me., September 9.—Read's plurality in this district, with four towns to bear it, is 736. The missing towns four years ago gave him 193 plurality.

LATER RETURNS.

Later returns show the Senate will stand: thirty-one Republicans and two Democrats. The House, as far as heard from, will have two Republicans and twenty-one Democrats.

HAYES FOR CONGRESS.

BOSTON, Mass., September 9.—The Republicans of the Fifth Congressional District to-day nominated Francis B. Hayes for Congress.

HENDRICKS TAKES THE STUMP.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., September 9.—Gov. Hendricks and wife leave this evening for Toledo, where the Governor delivers an address to-morrow at the State Fair. Before returning, he will make several speeches—political and otherwise.

Butler in Nebraska.

OMAHA, Neb., September 9.—Ben Butler arrived this morning, and delivered a speech at 1 o'clock at the State Fair Grounds to 6,000 people. Butler goes to the fair to speak in defense of the Anti-Monopoly Convention, now in session there.

ANOTHER GUITEAU.

And a Black One—He Shoots an Officer at Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 9.—Police Officer Fowler was shot and killed this morning while in performance of his duty by a negro desperado, named John Langster. The officer was in charge of the chain gang at work cleaning the alleys and Langster, watching his opportunity, slipped away from his fellow criminals and secreted himself in an outhouse, where Fowler and him and the negro Langster, who had been working at the outhouse, were found. When the officer seized him, when a negro named Wilson rushed up and a struggle began for the possession of Fowler's pistol. Langster finally secured a pistol and shot the officer through the heart. All this occurred in the presence of numerous bystanders, when Fowler appeared in vain for help. The negro Langster was captured by the police, and paid him sixty-four cents on the dollar, said to kill him.

AN ARKANSAS LYNCHING.

MAT ORTON, the firebug, hanged to a tree for safety committee.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., September 9.—About 8:30 o'clock last night a party of citizens of Arkansas City took from the custody of the sheriff Mat Orton, the incendiary who fired that town Monday night, and hanged him to a tree till dead. The fire which the villain started burned $30,000 worth of property. It was clearly proven that he was a negro, and the people demanded that he be hung.

A Safety Committee is being formed, and the bodies no good to bad characters who infest the country about the mouth of the Arkansas River.

The Latest.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., September 9.—Mat Orton, arrested on the charge of setting fire to buildings burned in Arkansas City yesterday, was hanged by an infuriated mob this morning.

ASSASSINATED IN DEAD.

AN OLD MAN MURDERED IN COLD BLOOD by son-in-law.

PORT SMITH, Ark., September 9.—Wm. Hill, an old farmer, was assassinated last night in his house in the Cherokee Nation, about a mile from Port Smith, by his son-in-law, Wm. Phillips. There was an old family feud between them, and Phillips shot him in the head some time ago. He was indicted in the United States Court here, but was released on bail. He was tried at the United States Court of Appeals, and was sentenced to death.

"What became of the bonds afterwards, Governor?"

"I don't certainly know. I have an idea, but I didn't see that transaction; either Col. Scott or afterwards he bought $77,000 worth of bonds."

"Then Mr. Blaine did get those bonds, and paid for them?"

"Yes," was the Governor's answer; "the bonds were paid for."

"No, not in money," responded the Governor; "but they were well paid for by Mr. Blaine left the State, and when he got to the door of the House and secured the extension we wanted. That was worth a great deal more than $77,000 to us."
